Photographers' Gallery

"Streets" Featuring Leonard Lee

Leonard Lea is a local Ashland photographer who loves to travel and visits locations away from the beaten path. His show, Streets, opens April 7th during the First Friday Art Walk at the The Photographers' Gallery At The Ashland Art Center.

Streets captures spontaneous images of local people and happenings in the streets of their own Mexican town or village. Leonard shows us a fleeting, un-posed glimpse into everyday life. A world traveler, recent trips have taken him to Japan, France, Italy, Switzerland, England, Wales, and Scotland, as well as Mexico.

The image, "Flower Girl" was taken on a recent trip to Ajijic, Mexico. Please join Leonard, a member of The Photographers Gallery, located in the Ashland Art Center during First Friday Art Walk on April 7, 2017.

First Friday Featured Musician: Martin Ball.

Shepherds Dream

"Grape Expectations" Watercolor paintings by Kay Myer

For artist Kay Myer, watercolors have always been her creative source, allowing her to explore the endless possibilities this medium allows. Both enthusiastic and passionate, Kay paints in a colorful, loose and interpretive style. This exhibit, "Grape Expectations," showcases her vivid watercolors.

As an active member of the Watercolor Society of Oregon, Kay has also won recognition in international art challenges and been taught by world famous watercolorist, Jean Haines. She was born in Denmark and adopted by an American couple and lived her earlier years in Rogue River. Kay is happily married to Chuck Myer, where they currently live in Medford, Oregon.

Gallerie Karon

Artist as Poet

Who knew that so many artists are also poets (and the other way around!)? This month's show at Gallerie Karon has more than 10 artist/poets!

Featuring Steve Dieffenbacher's sketchbooks from his trail walks and new photographs paired with his poetry. Johan Bernstein will show his fantastic photographs from their recent trip to Jerusalem. Rebecca Gabriel will show her lovely portraits. Both artists will incorporate new poetry. Liz Shepherd presents new Sumi-e ink drawings with her own poems and translations of Zen poetry.

There will be poetry books in our new poetry corner you can purchase and have signed.

FEATURED GALLERIES

Art and Soul Gallery

"The Wanderer" Oil Paintings by Diana Wright

Grab your keys and go...from a San Francisco luncheon to sun drenched Cayucos and then to a cool, mist filled day in Bandon, Oregon, I have marveled at the endless beauty of the world. The landscape renews us, brings us joy and hope in a time filled with anxious thoughts and feelings. Yes, we are sorrowful at the shrinking of the natural world. We stagger at the perils of over civilization, pollution, global warming, the shrinking of animal habitats, the acidification of the oceans, (to name a few), as they loom over our lives in an endless stream of fear. However, the joy of creating seems to transcend my fear. As I paint, I am in prayerful reverence for nature and I hope to communicate love, joy, and transcendent hope.
