Photographers' Gallery

Featuring David Lorenz Winston

David Lorenz Winston, an internationally recognized, award-winning photographer, is showing his new work at The Photographers' Gallery At The Ashland Art Center starting August 4th. Based in Talent, Oregon he is widely known for his winter landscapes. However, he is equally at home reflecting on the human condition and uncovering surprises in the ordinary. He brings a unique way of seeing to his work expressed through humor, irony, timing and mystery.

His current images reveal further explorations into the simple designs that can be found everywhere, but go largely unnoticed.

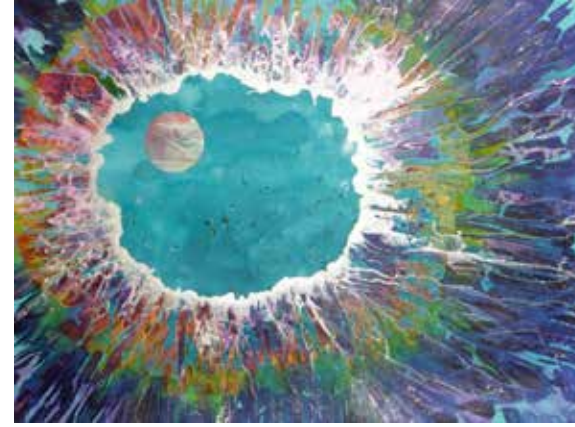

Hanson Howard Gallery

TRUE STORIES :: Sara Swink & Robert Koch, paintings and sculpture

Hanson Howard will be featuring, True Stories from the Lighter Side of Life, the whimsically narrative work of Sara Swink and Robert Koch this August.

Sara Swink makes ceramic human and animal forms with a psychological stance, using form, surface, color and facial expression to investigate the imaginable realm of dreams, fantasies and emotions. Bob Koch has a playful and humorous approach to storytelling using found snapshots as inspiration and taking the liberty to change the characters into animals. While feeling gestural and spontaneous, his paintings exhibit a strong use of composition and color.

Please join us for an artist reception during Ashland's First Friday Art Walk on August 4th, 5-8 p.m. Show runs August 4th-29th.

Art and Soul Gallery

"Following the Circuitous Thread" paintings by Eve Margo Withrow

I'm always curious to explore the edge that lies outside the box. From that perspective, I reflect on the essential feeling ingredients of an experience or place. Many of my favorite and most exciting works are the result of finding imaginative solutions to things run amok. I play and adventure with my expressions. Following threads here and there, I enter the flow of my creative process; head and heart awake and dancing.

Eve is an International Award winning Professional Artist and is part owner of Art&Soul Gallery in Ashland, Oregon

AUGUST 2017
FEATURED GALLERIES

Studio A.B

Plein Air works by Ann DiSalvo; The Weekly Press Revisited by Bruce Bayard

Ann DiSalvo recently spent a week on the Oregon coast creating plein air paintings. The act of painting outdoors has been a tradition for centuries. Ann battled the challenges presented by the elements of wind and sun, as well as curious onlookers who would not normally be present in a studio situation.

These works will be part of a larger exhibition at the Rogue Valley Manor in May of 2018. Come take a sneak preview.

Bruce has been studying the series he completed in 2010, finding new insights into how his previous work informs new video explorations. The series, comprised of 1000 still images became the turning point in his career, establishing his interest into time-based art. The current exhibition consisted of original size prints and a new larger format.

For First Friday Artwalk, Bruce presents video projections and improvised music..
