The Art I Create, Creates Me

Featured Main Gallery Artist: Denise Kester

Show: Story Art and How I Survived the Smokey Summer of 2018

Denise Kester is a nationally known artist. She has been a full time studio artist for 37 years. She is the owner and distributor of Drawing on the Dream note cards, established 1992. She studied art and education at the University of Georgia and printmaking at Southern Oregon University. Her book, "Drawing on the Dream. Finding my way by art" has just been published by White Cloud Press.

The Art I Create, Creates Me

Doing Art is how I express love for the world. It is how my dreaming earth soul realizes itself. What I do is a reflection of my heart's experience making itself visible, and it's more than that: my art has a story of its own and a life of its own. My art is magical realism. My art is possibility.

Shepherd's Dream

Year of the Bird

Birders and art appreciators join us at Shepherd's Dream with Pam Haunschild, wildlife artist, and her exhibition of beautiful bird paintings. This year has been declared, "The Year of the Bird" by National Geographic, the Audubon Society, and over 100 additional organizations, joining forces to promote a year-long effort dedicated to celebrating birds.

Pam Haunschild is a noted contemporary Northwest watercolor artist, and specializes in nature and wildlife. She is inspired by her wooded, high-elevation property near Ashland, Oregon, together with several National park artist-in-residence positions. (Lassen, Glacier, and Lake Clark Alaska). Viewers of her work will notice the hard work, and labor of love, developing paintings that speak to the beauty of our natural world. As an avid birder and bird photographer, she brings her expansive knowledge of bird species to her important work, colorfully and highly textured.

FEATURED GALLERIES

Hanson Howard Gallery

Noriko Sugita: woodcut prints, Cheryl Williams: ceramic sculpture

We will feature the work of Noriko Sugita and Cheryl Williams in September.

Noriko Sugita is a printmaker who works with traditional Japanese woodcut in a playful way, with complex layers of color, form and mark-making. Sculptor, Cheryl Williams manipulates thrown ceramic forms into elegant, curving twists and circular shapes with often metallic or patina finish.

Noriko Sugita's work depends on momentary inspiration, letting shapes and colors explore deep thought. Inventive and animated, her use of shapes and lines suggests human emotion and relationships or elaborate fictional worlds. Sugita often layers thin pigments of saturated color along with active marks through a reductive woodcut printing technique. While this makes for small editions it allows for increased detail and color.
