Ashland Art Works

Rogue Valley Views: Woodworking, Furniture, and Paintings

Visit us this month to see new offerings by painter Michael Gibson, who took inspiration from Oregon's Bear Creek Wine Trail, and furniture maker John Weston, who uses woods found and sourced in the Rogue Valley. Come by and meet the artists at First Friday on October 5.

Michael's style is unique and at the same time inspired by works of post-impressionist artists. For this show, he traveled Oregon's Southernmost Bear Creek Wine Trail and painted views from the wineries. The oil paintings are on particleboard, which provides an interesting texture. Michael received his BFA from Houston Museum of Fine Arts. He has worked as a designer, art director and taught life drawing, illustration, painting, graphic design and photography at Art Institute of Houston and the Art Institute of Seattle.

Gallerie Karon

Faces, Hidden and Revealed

Masks, Puppets and Portraits. There are a couple of twists to the annual mask and puppet show this year at Gallerie Karon. We've added portraits to the mix that will include work by Robert Paulmenn, Pam Danielle, Brooks Garden Hauschild and Richard LeVitt among others.

The most unusual offering is from a private collection of vintage ventriloquist dummies. It's rare to see a grouping like this and all for sale! Hand puppets are also in the evidence and many, many animals are represented. We even have stringed marionettes! Our extensive mask collection comes from all over the world. It includes helmet, face and shoulder masks. (We have a few fun ones for Halloween wearing too!)

FEATURED GALLERIES

Art & Soul Gallery

Mountains and More, Paintings by Carla Griffin

"It is my desire to awaken in the viewer the delight that arises from careful observation." Carla J Griffin, PSO

Carla presents her exquisite, realistic oil and pastel paintings. Her expressive landscapes depict the world through her observations and vision. Carla's works will be exhibited through the month of October.

Carla has won numerous local awards for her art including Painting of the Year from Southern Oregon Society of Artists and Best of Show from the Josephine County Artists Association. Griffin has also been accepted into four Pastel Society of Oregon's judged shows with awards in two of them and is now a Signature member. The Pastel Society of the West Coast also accepted an entry from Griffin.

Art & Soul celebrates our 20th birthday bringing fine art to Ashland and the surrounding communities on Friday, October 26, from 5–8 PM. Join us for birthday cake, wine, music and of course fine art!
